MATTAPOISETT TOWN NEWS

Mattapoisett Water Commissioners have called a meeting for 7:30 P.M. Thursday, January 20th, at the Old Rochester Regional High School. Invited are the Boards of Selectmen, Finance Committees and Water Commissioners from Mattapoisett and Marion Hiller Printing Company, low bidder, has received the contracts for printing the annual Town Reports and the Town Warrant.

John Bradley has been appointed as a special policeman at the Cathay Temple.

Following a hearing on the acceptance of Edgewood Lane, the Selectmen will file the necessary plans with the Town Clerk.

A hearing was held for the Reservation Golf Club for the filling of shore lands on their property. No objections were made. However, the matter requires further study because the Division of Waterways requires certain conditions be met. Present at the hearing were members of the Planning Board and Conservation Committee.

The Civil Defense will hold special demonstration of rescue techniques on January 24th at 7:30 P.M. in Fall River on the Battleship Massachusetts.

A letter of commendation has been received by the Selectmen from Charles A. Morgan. It calls attention to the commendable actions of Sergeant Alves, Officers Soares and Cacilhas of the Mattapoisett Police Department, and Mr. George Bradley of the Control Center, and others who were involved in a concerted though futile effort to rescue a dog, which had fallen through the ice into the Eel Pond on the afternoon of December 28, 1965. Mr. Morgan stated, "In this age of demonstrations bordering on treason, unlawful strikes and a general moral breakdown in our nation, it is most comforting to know that there are men in Town employ who are so dedicated to duty and to the public which they serve that they would endure exposure to the elements and a degree of personal risk for the welfare of a canine."

The Selectmen wish to publicly commend these men for this action.

ART CENTER'S EXHIBIT

Marion Art Center's first exhibition of 1966 will be a most unusual one. It will show representative works of Guy Pene du Bois, an American painter of people caught in action, involved in incidents common to the life of all of us - people whose type and manner we find arresting and familiar.

Guy Pene du Bois was born in Brooklyn in 1884. He loved cities with their restaurants, galleries, theaters and race tracks. In the night clubs of Greenwich Village he associated with such artists as Yasuo Kunioyoshi and Jacob Burck, and with a society reminiscent of the writings of Scott Fitzgerald and the lithographs of Toulouse Lautrec. Vigorous draughtmanship, intensity of color, harmony of tone and composition, characterize his work. After his death in Boston in 1959, Edward Alden Jewell, critic for the New York Times, sums up his place in modern contemporary art by saying, 'it is pretty safe to call him a master'.

The coming exhibition which as been made possible by the artist's daughter, Yvonne du Bois McKenney, and by James Graham & Sons, New York art dealers, will be opened to the public on January 25th. A special showing for Art Center members will be held the evening of January 23rd.

She also, as Americanism chairman, told of the United States Senate STAFF STUDY on "The anti-Vietnam Agitation and the Teach-in Movement" - in which the pro-Communist front records of many professors are listed in detail. One instance she mentioned was the record of assistant professor Staughton Lynde of Yale who just got back from an unofficial visit to North Vietnam. There is a page and a half of his pro-Communist activities listed - and 6 pages of that of his father and mother!

It was voted to send the Wareham Courier to Col. George W. Carrington, Jr. of the Marines, whose home is in Marion. Col. Carrington had requested this from Vietnam to our Washington, H.W. and it was forwarded to the Wareham Auxiliary.

It was also voted to subscribe to The Firing Line and have it sent to Wareham High School library. This is the American Legion monthly newsletter which keeps Americans informed on anti-Americanism and subversive activities in this country.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Today's paper tells of a Russian whose job was Procurement Officer for the UNICEF FUND - The United Nations Childrens Fund - using that job as a cover for buying restricted American missile components. His salary with UNICEF was about $18,000 - and I wonder how many churches, teachers and mothers who urged their children to beg for this fund at Halloween, feel now!

I have never supported UNICEF. Not that I don't have great compassion for the starving children in the world. I give to the Missions to help this work where I know every cent is spent to best advantage and doesn't go for big salaries. UNICEF 'Christmas' cards are an insult to any Christian. They in no way indicate what Christmas means - and furthermore Communist artists do the painting for some of them! Also - many don't realize that UNICEF gives to officials of various countries the privilege of where the food-stuffs, etc. go. Hence, in Communist countries it goes to Communist citizens only. Many countries not under Communist control have been well infiltrated - so again these things go to the wrong people.

Presenting UNICEF with the NOBEL PEACE PRIZE right before Thanksgiving was another part of the left-wing work. Anyone who cares to investigate how many Communists and pro-Communists have won these awards would find it quite appalling!

WILL YOUR CHILDREN GO BEGGING AT HALLOWEEN NEXT YEAR TO HELP PAY TREMENDOUS SALARIES FOR RUSSIAN SPIES?

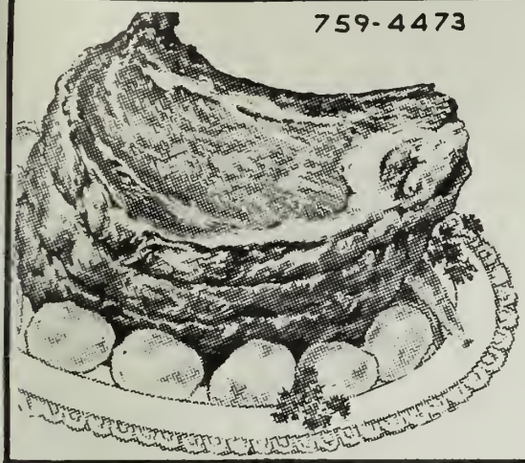
JUNIOR GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Junior Grange held its meeting last Friday night with the worthy master

759-4473



THE BOURNE MILL

BUZZARDS BAY AT THE BOURNE BRIDGE

Our famous BUFFET Wednesdays and Saturdays

WELCOME TO THE THIRSTY WHALE

Wayne Sylvia presiding.

John Alves reported on the Bird Conservation and Jane Harris reported on her Home and Community Service work. She also held a sale of comics and lollypops on her table, to help with her community work.

The lecturer's hour was used for workshop. State and National projects were discussed. The National Craft Contest for 1966 is an object made of bottle corks. Other material, such as pipe cleaners, thumb tacks, wire, etc., may be used. This project is sponsored by the Farmers and Traders Life Insurance Company in conjunction with the National Grange. The bottle corks are not very plentiful around, so anyone having any they would like to donate to the Juniors will be very much appreciated. Size limitations, 1 to 15 corks may be used.

During the workshop safety posters on fire prevention were started, a State Grange project.

Whist tallies for the Subordinate Grange and greeting cards were made to be used by the Junior Sunshine Committee.

The next meeting, January 21st, the program will be in charge of Jane Harris. Refreshment hosts will be Mark Breton and Mark Trow.
